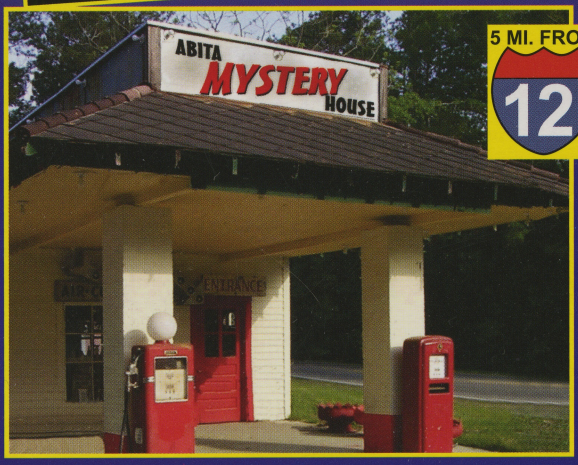
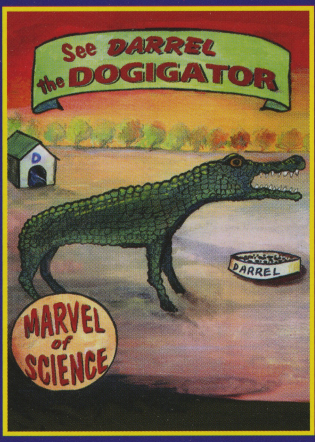
ABITA MYSTERY HOUSE

25 YEARS





The Abita Mystery House at the UCM Museum is a fun roadside attraction in historic Abita springs. For over 22 years families and friends have walked through the maze of buildings that include a vintage gas station, the Shed of Miracles, the Cabin of Moral Obligation, the House of Shards, and the Main Exhibit Hall.

ABITA MYSTERY HOUSE

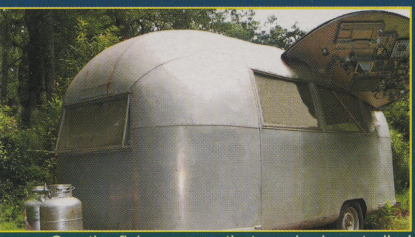
Using 1000's of found objects and home made inventions, artist John Preble created an incredible "mini town" that pokes fun at Southern life: Mardi Gras parades, UFO landings, voodoo fortune tellers, oil refinery plantations, alligator wrestlers, and Cajun chefs. Walk through a maze of buildings and enjoy pushing buttons that activate the funny animated displays.

Be Strange, Not A Stranger - Preble

See the art stuido where exhibits are created!

This 120 yr. old Creole cottage is now a studio where our artists create, invent and build the wild and crazy pieces you will see in the exhibit halls.



See the flying saucer that crashed our trailer!
